The family moved for brief periods of time to various places in the western United States until they settled in Sparks, Nevada, when J Harold was eleven years of age. He graduated from the Sparks High School and a year later went on a mission for the LDS Church to the Spanish American Mission. Shortly after his return from the mission field he was drafted and served 54 months with the U.S. Army, spending approximately three years in Alaska.

Upon graduation from the Brigham Young University he entered the University of Utah School of Law. After passing the bar he moved with his wife and family to Heber City, to commence the practice of law.

He and his wife have six children, five boys and a girl. President Call is an Eagle Scout and a member of the Wasatch Chamber of Commerce.
